

THE RULES

Players: 4-8

Ages: 14+

Roll Camera! Grab some popcorn and watch our how-to-play video at CastingCallTheGame.com/how-to-play

INTERIOR: YOUR LIVING ROOM – NIGHT

Gather around a humble coffee table as family and friends transform into skilled thespians before your eyes! Your home becomes a Hollywood battlefield with merciless actors clawing their way onto the silver screen!

CONTENTS (90 CARDS):

30 Screenplay Cards:

Your script for the auditions. Give it all you've got!

20 Callback Cards:

Refine your performance based on the genre and action on the card. You're one step closer to landing the role. This is your opportunity to show your range!

20 Do You Know Who I Am?! Cards:

These are wild cards – using them can make all the difference. Play yours strategically to get ahead, take out your competition, and win that part!

20 Star Cards:

This is your reward for landing the part. Collect these cards to find fame and fortune!

OBJECT OF THE GAME:

The object of the game is to become a movie star!

Collect three Star cards to win the game.

Get ready for your close-up; you're about to be the next big thing!

PREPARATION:

1. One player shuffles each of the four types of cards.
2. Place the four stacks of cards on the table, face down.
3. Deal one Do You Know Who I Am?! card to each player.

GAME PLAY:

Players read their Do You Know Who I Am?! cards, but keep them secret until played! You may play these cards at ANY TIME.

In each round, one person plays the DIRECTOR. Everyone else is an ACTOR auditioning for a role. Whoever saw a movie in a theater most recently is the director for the first round. In the event of a tie, a coin toss determines who goes first.

STEP 1 – The Audition

The director draws a Screenplay card and chooses one of the two dialogue lines and hands it to the actor on their left to perform.

After the actor gets into character and signals they're ready, the director calls "Action!" and the actor gives their best performance! Then they pass the card to the actor on their left, who performs their own take on the same line. This continues until each actor has auditioned.

Flubbed your line? Don't fret. If an actor wants to try again, they may say "Take 2" and repeat their performance.

STEP 2 – The Callback

Time to narrow the field! The director selects their two favorite performances, then picks a Callback card from the deck. Choosing one of the two adjustments provided, the director reads the instructions to the two chosen actors. Using the same script they auditioned with, the actors give the performances of their lives.

STEP 3 – The Star Card

The director now casts ONE of the two actors to be in their film. Without reading it first, they award the actor a Star card.

The actor reads the card out loud to learn their fate. Was their agent able to close their deal? Or did a film's financing go bust before the cameras ever rolled? Anything can happen on the set of a movie!

☆☆☆ The person to the left of the director becomes the new director, and casting starts again. The game continues until someone collects three Star cards.

Sounds simple, right? Not so fast!

This is Hollywood, sweetheart! From the penthouse to the outhouse in a split second! Play your Do You Know Who I Am?! card at ANY TIME during the game. Slap down one of these babies and you might be able to grab someone's Star card, or even horn in on their callback audition! One thing is certain, you'll cackle with glee at the absolute unfairness of it all!

NOTE: READ THE INSTRUCTIONS ON THE BACK OF A STAR CARD ONLY WHEN AWARDED THE CARD BY THE DIRECTOR AT THE END OF A ROUND. STAR CARDS RECEIVED ANY OTHER TIME AND ANY OTHER WAY ARE REWARD CARDS ONLY.

Once each card is played, return it to the bottom of its deck.

WINNING THE GAME:

The first player to collect three STAR CARDS achieves movie-star status and wins the game! All that's left is to write your award ceremony acceptance speech, filled with false modesty and fake gratitude! We know, you couldn't have done it without us.

SHARE YOUR AUDITIONS ON SOCIAL MEDIA!     @castingcallthegame

Fade to black.

The END.